Re: Young America's Foundation
29th National Conservative Student Conference

Dear Mr. Robinson:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Council on American-Islamic Relations Action Network, Inc. ("CAIR"), of Washington, D.C. It has come to CAIR's attention that YAF's National Conservative Student Conference has scheduled a session for Thursday, August 2, 2007, at 4:00 p.m. entitled, "The Truth about the Council on American-Islamic Relations," featuring Robert Spencer.

You should be aware that Mr. Spencer, a well-known purveyor of hatred and bigotry against Muslims, has a history of false and defamatory statements. Several of those statements have falsely accused CAIR of activity that would constitute a federal criminal offense.

CAIR is, in fact, America's largest Muslim civil liberties group. It has 32 offices and chapters nationwide and in Canada. Its mission is to enhance understanding of Islam, encourage dialogue, protect civil liberties, empower American Muslims and build coalitions that promote justice and mutual understanding.

CAIR has consistently taken a principled position against terrorism and extremism. In 2005 alone, CAIR backed a fatwa against terrorism; its anti-terror online petition was signed by more than 690,000 individuals; and produced public service announcements repudiating extremist ideologies.

For these reasons, we demand that YAF cancel the subject session, or else take steps to ensure that false and defamatory statements are not disseminated at that session.

Our clients have instructed us to pursue every available and appropriate legal remedy to redress any false and defamatory statements that are made at the session.

Please let us know by the close of business today, Wednesday, August 1, 2007, whether you intend to comply with these requests.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph E. Sandler
